

The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, January 21. 1708.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Jan. 27.

Naples, Jan. 3.

GENERAL Werzel has put a good Garrison into Orbitello, together with Stores of Ammunition and Provisions: But had not a sufficient Number of Troops to attack the Castles of Port Ercole, Porto Longone, Porto Ferajo, Talamone, and Piombino, which are in Tuscany and belong to the Crown of Spain: Wherefore he will speedily return hither.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Jan. 27.

Milan, Jan. 9. Some Letters from Genoa advise, that the Fleet which sail'd from Vado with the Succours for Catalonia, were forc'd back to Final by contrary Winds. But the Wind having now been fair 2 or 3 Days, 'tis hop'd they have proceeded on their Voyage to Catalonia successfully. All the Imperial Officers who are raising Recruits in this Country, have receiv'd Order from the Court of Vienna, not only to list no Frenchmen, but if they have any already in their Troops or Companies to turn them out.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Jan. 27.

Milan, Jan. 11. The Night between the 5th and 6th Instant, after the Opera was ended, the Theatre took Fire and was burn'd to the Ground. The Fire spread to the Offices of the Secretaries of State and of War, and to Part of the secret Chancery, which are almost contiguous to the Place where stood the Theatre: But the great Chancellour and the Presidents, the Marquis Visconti, the General of the Artillery, and other Ministers and Persons of Quality hastening thither, such proper Orders were given and so speedily executed that all the Records were sav'd, and a sudden stop put to the Fire, which might otherwise have consum'd all the Palace, and done other great Damage. 'Tis computed, that the Loss by this Fire amounts to 200000 Philippi. The Palatine Horse that were to have embark'd for Catalonia, are return'd into this State: And Wednesday last in the Evening we had Advice that the Palatine Foot which embark'd at Vado, had deferr'd their Departure, because the Provisions on board the Transports was spoil'd by lying, and was to be supplied by new: But 'tis not doubted they have since sail'd. The Count de Bonafana having seen his Regiment embark'd, is arriv'd here. The two Ships of King Charles commanded by the Captains Levanto and Bollino, have joyn'd the 19 British and Dutch Men of War, to sail with them to Barcelona. 'Tis still reported, that that Squadron will land some Troops on the Island of Sardinia to reduce it to the Obedience of King Charles III.

They write from Rome, that King Philip had sent Order to Messina in Sicily, for taking off from the Pedestal of the Statue of King Charles II the Inscription which styles the Inhabitants Rebels; his Majesty declaring them at present to be most loyal.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Jan. 27.

Turin, Jan. 3. Yesterday in the Evening the Duke of Savoy sent Count Foschieri Commandant of this City, with a Detachment of Soldiers, to a Monastery of Carmelites call'd the Monastery of Santa Maria di Piazza, to execute a Bull of the Pope's injoying those Monks to deliver up the Keys of their Monastery and of their Church, together with their Plate, &c; to leave all; to separate themselves, and to go into 3 other Convents of the same Order in this City: Or otherwise, obliging them to submit to such a Reform as the Fathers of those 3 Convents should think fit to make among them. The Monks of Santa Maria di Piazza thought it best to receive the others into their Convent, and acknowledge them for their Superiours: A thing never seen in this City before. We have Advice by an Express, that last Night 7 or 8000 French enter'd Piemont unexpectedly, cannon'd themselves in several Places, and thence sent out Parties to raise Contributions; they threaten even to plunder and put the Country in Flames before they retire. The Count is the more alarm'd at this ill News, because they do not see which way to form a Body of Troops of Force sufficient to repulse the Enemy, without drawing the Garrisons out of the Frontier Places: So that 'tis found necessary to send for Troops from Lombardy; and we now find, that this Invasion of the Country will cost the People more, than if Winter Quarters had been granted in the Country to a greater Number of German Troops.

Letters from Baden of the 16th of January advise, that the general Diet of the Swiss Cantons was open'd there the 15th; That the Marquis de Puissieux Ambassador of France was to arrive there the 17th; That the King of France had written to the laudable Helvetick Body a Letter that was not made publick; but that 'twas rumour'd his Majesty was unwilling to consent to a Neutrality for Neufchatel, chusing rather to put that Principality into the Hands of the 13 Cantons till Peace be made; and that on that Condition he will attempt nothing against it.

They write from Berne the 18th that publick Notice had been given in all the Churches of that Canton, for every Man to hold himself in a Readiness to march, if Occasion should require, to the Assistance of the Inhabitants of Neufschatel their Comburghers and Neighbours; And that a lighted March had been found in time, in the great Magazine of Powder, which the Regency of Berne have at Yverdun on the Frontier of Neufschatel.

The Advices from Basil of the 19th are, that the Regents of that Canton had sent to Hunninghen 3 Deputies, to compliment the Marshal de Villars on his Arrival there; that he gave them a good Reception, and told them the King his Master had form'd a great Design, which they would see break out very soon.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Jan. 27.

Toulon, Jan. 13. The Squadron commanded by M. de Bellefontaine having taken in Provisions at the Islands of Hieres, are sail'd for Sicily. The equipping of 8 large Men of War which was begun here, is stop'd; but Men are working Day and Night in fitting out 12 third Rates, which for Want of Seamen men cannot be ready till March. The Troops who march'd from these Parts for Rouffillon, were imbarck'd at the Cape of Sette, to be transported to Perpignan. Ships are continually going from hence to Rouffillon, with Stores for the Magazines which the King has order'd to be made there. Most of the Gallies at Marseilles are laid up, to save Expence.

Perpignan, Jan. 18. 16 Transport Vessels that were coming hither from Languedoc, had stormy Weather by the Way, and one of them having on board 150 Men was sunk; the rest with great Difficulty got into the River Eault; and the high Winds continuing, 'tis thought the Forces on board them will be set ashore at Adge, and march hither by Land. We begin to make great Preparations here for a Siege. The Catalonians work hard on the Fortifications of Gironne.

Paris, Jan. 23. The Duke de Noailles has taken Leave of the King, and sets out this Week for Rouffillon. Letters from Madrid of the 10th of this Month tell us, that the Marquis de Bay was gone from thence to Badajoz, to make the necessary Dispositions for an early Campaign; and the Design being to act against Portugal with more Vigour this Year than the last, 8000 French are order'd to march from the Frontiers of Catalonia to Estramadura. They write from Saragossa, that the Duke of Berwick arriving there from Madrid, staid but 3 Days, and then went away for Valencia, to command the Troops employ'd in the Siege of Alcoy; which Place is situate 3 Miles from Alicant, and was Invested the 10th or 12th Instant. Yesterday Morning many of the Marshal de Villar's Servants went from hence for Alsace; from which 'tis conjectur'd that that General will not return hither before the Opening of the Campaign. The Duke of Vendome is expected at Court in a few Days from his Seat at Anet, and within 3 Weeks will set out for Lille. The Marquis de Thianges, Lieutenant-General and Governour of St. Malo, is dead.

Portsmouth, Jan. 19. Yesterday Sir John Leake hoisted his Flag on Board her Majesty's Ship the Albemarle. The Ships for Portugal continue here still. The Forces that were encamp'd on the Island are all embark'd for Portugal.

By her Majesty's Company of Comedians.

AT the Theatre Royal in Drury-Lane, this present Wednesday, being the 21st of January, will be presented a Comedy call'd, The Careless Husband. All the Parts to be perform'd to the best Advantage.

Whereas the Consumption of true French Brandy is of late so much increas'd that the sort which Major Thomas Bird has hitherto sold for 8 s. 6 d. a Gallon, is now sold by publick Sale at 8 s. 8 d. and 8 s. 10 d. a Gallon by the Piece; the Major is therefore oblig'd to give notice, that after Thursday the 22d Instant, he will raise the Price of his Brandy to 9 s. the Gallon; and that he will always sell it neat and full proof at a Market Price, whereof he will from time to time advertise the publick. He sells the best old Cogniac at 10 s. per Gallon, at his Warehouse in Pudding-Lane near the Monument.

A Widow (who is an Executrix) hath a Parcel of Woollen Cloth to dispose of at the 7 Stars in Harvey Court against the New Exchange in the Strand, and will sell Superfine Men's and Women's Black Cloth at 13 s. 6 d. per Yard, fine Scarlet at 15 s. 6 d. and Superfine Scarlet at 17 s. 6 d. Likewise Blews, Blacks and other Sorts and Colours proportionable, the Price being fixt upon each Piece. Attendance will be given till all sold.

The Incomparable India Dentsick Roots, only to be had at Thomas Allcraft's a Toy-shop at the Sign of the Bluecoat-Boy over-against the Royal Exchange, and at Young-Man's Coffee-House near Charing-Cross, price 6 d. each Root. This Root dipped in fair Water, and bruise'd with a Hammer, becomes a soft and pleasant Brush to the Teeth and Gums, afterwards pairing away by degrees the outward Rind, wears so to the last. Its Vertues are beyond any Human Art for cleaning the Teeth, as to bring them to the Whiteness of Ivory in a few times using; it preserves your Teeth from corruption and prevents farther decay in any before corrupted, whoever uses it 2 or 3 times a day will ever avoid Tooth-ach, having foul Teeth, or a strong Breath, nor is this Root in its use any wife offensive to smell or taste.

An Infallible Mixture for Horses that are Broken-Winded; which does perfectly cure them, after many Things promised have been ineffectual, to a Wonder, in a small Time, without Confinement; by attenuating and opening the Globules of the Lungs dried up, and all the Passages obstructed, by Humours dripping thereon; occasion'd from Hard-Ridings, Colds, &c. causing presently a Free Perspiration, renewing its Force, Vigour and Length again as well as ever; it immediately cures those Horses only a little touch'd in their Wind, as also all continued Coughs, Colds, Wheezings, &c. being excellent in preventing many other Distempers incident to them, by maintaining, preserving, and continuing a Good Breath: And in a Word, by this very Medicine only many Horses have been made so perfectly Sound, and have been Sold and valu'd at 10 and 12 l. which by being Broken-winded could not before be Sold for 4 or 5 l. Is only Sold at Mrs. Bradbury's, at the Golden-Ball, over-against Stocks-Market in the Poultry, at 4 s. 6 d. each, with Printed Directions.
